A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to_____ the Co - rin - thi - ans.

Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead?_____

If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised;

and if Christ has not been raised,

then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith_____ has been in vain.____

We are even found to be misrepresenting God,

because we testified of God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised.

For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

Then those also who have died in Christ have perished.

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

For since death came through a human being,

the resurrection of the dead has also come through a hu - man be - ing;

for as all die in Adam, so all will be made a - live_ in Christ. But each in his own order:

Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who be - long to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Fa - ther, after he has destroyed every ruler and every au - thor - i - ty and pow - er.

For he must reign until he has put all en - e - mies un - der his feet.

The last enemy to be de - stroyed_____ is death._____
