Matthew 2:1-2, 9-11 (NRSV)

A reading from the Gospel according to Matt-hew.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking,

“Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews?—

For we observed his star at its ri - sing, and have come to pay him ho - mage.”

They set out for Bethlehem, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its ris - ing, until it stopped over the place where the child— was.

When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.

On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mo - ther;

and they knelt down and paid him ho - mage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
